Dear Judge Furman:

This firm represents defendant Ian Mausner (“Defendant”) in the above-referenced matter. We write, in accordance with Rule 2(E) of Your Honor’s Individual Rules and Practices in Civil Cases, to respectfully request a limited adjournment of this matter’s November 7, 2023 initial pretrial conference.

1. Original date(s): November 7, 2023.
2. Number of previous requests for adjournment or extension: None.
3. Whether these previous requests were granted or denied: Not applicable.
4. Reasons for the requested extension: Defendant’s counsel will be away on personal vacation during the week of November 6, 2023. This is a long-planned vacation with his wife and two young children.
5. Whether the adversary consents and, if not, the reasons given by the adversary for refusing to consent: Plaintiff’s counsel consents to the request. Moreover, all counsel have conferred and—in the interest of facilitating Your Honor’s consideration of this request—have confirmed their mutual availability for the following, alternative dates: November 13, 14, or 16.
6. Date of the parties’ next scheduled appearance before the Court as well as any other existing deadlines: There are no other scheduled appearances before the Court. The only other existing deadline is Defendant’s court-ordered deposition on October 30, 2023. That deposition will not be affected by this adjournment request.
